Saudi Arabia's interior design and fit-out market is growing rapidly and offers enormous potential. The market volume was expected to reach USD 4.09 billion in 2025 and is projected to grow to USD 6.52 billion by 2029. Large-scale projects such as the construction of 320,000 new hotel rooms by 2030, luxury residential complexes and modern workspaces are driving demand for high-quality interior furnishings.

With a GDP of around USD 1.1 trillion in 2024, Saudi Arabia ranks among the 19 largest economies in the world. As part of Vision 2030, USD 1–2 trillion is being invested in infrastructure, urban development, housing, tourism and mega-projects. Billions of dollars are being spent on initiatives by NEOM and Red Sea Global, which will feature a futuristic city as well as hundreds of hotels and leisure facilities.

INDEX Saudi Arabia is the ideal place to present your brand, establish new partnerships, and position yourself as a provider of premium products. In addition to the trade fair, Design Talks, the Design District and the Future Stars program offer additional platforms for networking, inspiration, and visibility.
